What is Council Tax and what is it used for?

Council Tax is a tax you pay to your local council, so that – depending on which type of council they are – they can deliver services like:

- rubbish and recycling collections
- street cleansing and mechanical sweeping
- investments into private affordable housing
- education and libraries
- police and fire services
- adult social care

The table below depicts examples of some of the services managed by Babergh and Mid Suffolk, and comparable services run by Suffolk County Council. It intends to illustrate the differences in responsibilities that the two councils have. Your Council Tax will payments may go towards any of these services.

Examples of local services managed by Babergh Mid Suffolk District Councils	Examples of comparable local services managed by Suffolk County Council
Rubbish and recycling collections, and clearing fly-tipping on public land	Waste disposal (disposal of household waste, and the management of 11 recycling centres)
Street cleansing and mechanical sweeping	Street lighting, traffic signals and pedestrian crossings
Planning applications	Planning applications for mineral developments (for example, quarrying)

Usually, you will have to pay Council Tax if you are aged 18 or over, and own or rent a home.

How is my Council Tax bill calculated?

How much you pay will depend on two things:

1. The Council Tax band your property is placed in. There are eight bands (A-H) and they are based on property value. The highest paying band is Band H
2. The level of Council Tax set each year by your local council

Your Council Tax bill will provide a breakdown of who your money will be paid to. In Babergh and Mid Suffolk, your Tax payment will be split between:

- Suffolk County Council
- Adult Social Care (Suffolk County Council)
- Babergh District Council or Mid Suffolk District Council (depending on which district you live in)
- Your local town or parish council (if you have one)
- Police & Crime Commissioner

What do I do if I think my Council Tax band is wrong?

Your home has been allocated a band (A-H) according to its market value on 1 April 1991. The Valuation Office Agency (VOA) is responsible for Council Tax banding, so you will need to contact them if you disagree with your band.

Check your Council Tax band via the VOA's online service.

You can also use the same online service to challenge your band. You are only able to make a challenge if you have been the Council Tax payer for less than six months.

You will also need to provide evidence that supports your challenge.

In February 2022, the government announced it would be helping people with rising energy costs, via a Council Tax rebate.

- People who live in a household with a Council Tax band of A-D will receive the rebate

- Discretionary funding will be made available for those who live in households with a Council Tax band of E-H

For more information, please visit our Council Tax Bill further information webpage.

Help and support with your bill

There is a lot of support available to help people who may face difficulties in paying their Council Tax bill.

Council Tax Reduction

Babergh and Mid Suffolk operate a Council Tax reduction (CTR) scheme. You may receive CTR if you are on a low income (even if you are working). CTR is not a payment, but a reduction to your bill total.

Whether you qualify for CTR – and how much reduction you may be awarded – will depend on:

- the amount you are liable to pay
- family circumstances
- your income and savings
- who else lives with you, and what their situation is

If you think you may qualify, you can use our online CTR calculator to find out. The calculator will ask you questions about things like whether you currently pay Council Tax, and whether you have savings.

If you qualify, you can submit a CTR claim online. The claim does not have to be made in one single session.

When you make a claim, we will let you know what evidence you will need to provide. Examples of evidence you might need to include are:

- bank statements
- proof of income
- award letters

Discretionary Financial Assistance

Discretionary Financial Assistance (DFA) is a payment made to you by the Councils, that you can use to reduce your Council Tax bill. DFA is intended to help people who are experiencing a short-term, exceptional financial problem. These payments come from a limited fund every year and are almost always 'one-off' payments.

DFA can be paid to anyone who pays Council Tax – this is regardless of whether the customer receives Council Tax Reduction or any other type of exemption or discount.

We independently review every DFA request. We will look at things like:

- your income and savings
- any loans or debt you may have
- whether you, or someone in your family, is ill or disabled

Apply for DFA online

Exemptions and discounts

Generally, when an exemption applies – no Council Tax will need to be paid.

If an exemption doesn't apply, you may qualify for a discount (or disregard). Qualifying for either would mean that you receive a reduction on your bill. Sometimes, exemptions and discounts can be backdated.

Exemptions can be split into two categories – people-based exemptions and property-based exemptions.

In some cases, people who have a disregard may qualify for an exemption. An example of this is where everyone who lives in a property is a full-time student.

Every situation is individual. The Councils will be able to tell you about any discounts, exemptions or other financial support that you may be entitled to.

For information about the reductions, exemptions, discounts and other support we can provide, please visit the Exemptions, discounts and premiums section of our website.
